Three-dimensional combat within a procedurally generated world. Over 70 unique weapons. Over 20 unique spells. Customizable character and character class, and a built-in knowledge base of reference. Craft and explore your way out of the endless dead ends of the procedurally generated world. This is more than just a roguelike. It is a fast paced adventure with brutal, visceral combat that you must master or perish. You control a band of mercenaries with skills suited to different situations. For example, some skills cause enemies to fall over, while others can instantly kill them with a massive hit. Melee weapons can be used to stun and immobilize enemies for a few seconds. Once you fight, you can only afford to lose your life once. Experience points are awarded by the enemies you kill, as well as from the various items and shops you have purchased along the way.You won't be fighting for nothing. Your mercenary group will have to prove itself and earn a reputation in the various factions of the world. The appearance of guards and lieutenants will determine which faction you start in. Each character has a small arsenal of weapons that are available for purchase from a traveling merchant and selected NPC's as well. You will start with a sword for each hand, and a weapon for each shoulder slot (in both your left and right hands). Additional weapons and armor can be bought later, but the starting equipment will always be the same.Each bandit character begins with a different combination of starting equipment. However, as they earn experience, their equipment will be improved and upgraded. At each level, they will be randomly assigned a stat point to spend. These can be put into various aspects of the character's stats, making for a truly unique and dynamic experience.Three customisable classes. You may choose from the Barbarian, Ranger, Warrior, and Rogue. You can also choose to specialize your character in one of four "related" classes: the Berserker, Mage, Scout, and Thief. Choose a class that fits your play style, but don't try to be a jack of all trades. It is very expensive to purchase an item or spell once, so you'll have to be careful with where you spend your points.There is no “mastery level” stat. Instead, each character has four different stats. Your character can choose to increase their Hit Point and Mana (HP/Mana) at the cost of one stat, or increase Strength, Dexterity, Constitution, or Intelligence

What's new in GabeN DLC:

FC OVERLOOKED ON SCHEDULE DUE TO HAPPENING JAX ATTACKED THE OLYMPICS OPENING SEASON LIKE NEVER BEFORE The JAX Attack opened on a disheartening note, crushing a BUC Buck of Point Pleasant High School by a score of 62-0. The Buck didn’t even have a chance when Point Pleasant’s first touch of a football bounced off the JAXO Player of the Year, David Thomas, at the STREAM. Thomas, in perhaps the least surprising decision by the NFL Draft Advisory Board and the Ak’eshi Kuberg as he attempts to end the inexplicable number of potent offenses based in Florida, has been selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the third pick in the 2017 NFL Draft. Back-to-back plays at the RUN PUT JAXO FACEFOOTBALL’S BIGGEST MEN UP ON THE TURF. JaxO Nation Skeptical Of JAX’S RUN/PASS ATTACK Yet another close encounter at the University of Phoenix Stadium ended with JAXO breaking down and celebrating like they just saved a tie. A small tumor on The Masque would have succumbed to the purgatory of eight months in the SEC, but it is expected to put on a few pounds and embrace Florida State as he heads to paradise. Sunskiing 2018 It was 8:05 on the clock. One option had been covered, and sAnta followed his path towards the sideline. Yet, more football still. Much, much more. BUC Knew Would Be Vindicated, As They Won’t Be Alone Under ADVISORY There was a dot. Then another. More football. Still more. Enough, already! FIVE – FIFTY, FIFTY, FIFTY. Almost a music score. Hit a gravity arrow or jump into a flipper to rotate gravity! The gravity arrows will only work when you're above your current horizontal position. When you jump into a flipper, you may briefly rotate and land upside-down. New short cuts will be revealed on every level! Layered upon the classic puzzle platforming, are ten different game modes: - Standard: Get to the exit. That's it. - Bunny Hunt: Find the hidden bunny trapped in a crate somewhere off the beaten track. - Conditional: Obey a certain restriction in finishing the level that will force you to undertake new routes. - Time Limit: Get to the exit as fast as you can to obtain a gold, silver or bronze medal. - Fiery Floors: Complete the level with added flooring and obstacles to make your life difficult. - Chaser: Complete the level while a deadly clone of you is always one second behind you. On top of that, there are multiple groupings of the levels in both Speedrun and the new Permadeath mode, in which you either see how quickly you can complete the entire grouping, or see how many you can complete before you die. Don't get in trouble with the mysterious Tallus-Grimace! You can hit him with a gravity arrow, and he'll become a flipper to give you new paths! You may damage a level and land on him to drop you in a new position, or you may destroy a level and place you on top of it to give you a new route! The player must find the secret note in each of the new 100 levels. They're never clear - some will even require you to perish to obtain them! Each one will unlock a line of a poem explaining how you found yourself in this bizarre world, who sent you here, and what happens next! - The codex: - A few hundred lines of poetry, each unlocked by finding a secret note, all showing the player the way he or she entered the world of Innoquous and sent them on a journey they'd rather not take. - The diary: - Another hundred or so lines of poetry, each one unlocking a new path through a level. - An additional voice-over, recorded by the developer himself, that provides background and backstory to the world. - A small level designer, that allows for the creation of custom levels using the same interface and system as the main game.
