Once a king, always a king, is a maxim handed down from one generation of artists to the next. In our own time of impersonal communication and quality control, the notion that a masterpiece must be copied in full seems antiquated. However, sometimes when the original is gone, the copy becomes the original, and the copy cannot be overlooked. Even if one stands in the place of the original artist, as in the case of a masterpiece that is stolen, one still may not feel as though an essential part of the experience was captured, the experience will exist only in the minds of those who actually had the ability to see it. The Tampa Bay Rays have a lot of talent with Carlos Pena, B.J. Upton and Evan Longoria who have done well so far this year. But the key is that they will go to the playoffs and they will get a crack at making it to the World Series as long as they win the last game of the season. Perhaps they won't make it to the World Series, but this isn't what we are talking about. We are talking about staying in the playoffs by avoiding the sniffing dogs, spinning bayonets and mustard gas at every turn. Exercise makes you look healthy. It makes you look stronger and more capable of taking on the challenges of life. Having a lack of exercise can leave you feeling tired, and this can lead to an increase in the risk of some illnesses. Exercise when you are sick can also help ease the symptoms of a cold. A cold can be incredibly annoying and can leave you feeling like your head might explode. You can try to mitigate the symptoms of a cold by exercising. This can be as simple as a brisk walk, but if you have time, try and do a full workout, such as a strength training workout.
